PEACE PUBLICATIONS.

THE AMERICAN ADVOCATE OF PEACE AND ARBITRATION.—This occupies the front rank of anti-war periodicals. Fresh, comprehensive, accurate, with the latest news from the field—having a watchful eye on legislation and legislators, representing all peace-loving people, it is indispensable to those interested in the great Reform. Bi-monthly, well printed, in magazine form. Price $1.00 per year. Send subscriptions to the Editor, R. B. Howard, No. 1 Somerset St., Boston, Mass.

PAPERS ON THE REASONABLENESS OF INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION, ITS RECENT PROGRESS, AND THE CODIFICATION OF THE LAW OF NATIONS. Sixty-eight pages. Read at Conferences of the Association for the Reform and Codification of the Law of Nations, held at the Hague, Cologne, Milan, Liverpool, and London, 1875 to 1887. By Henry Richard, M. P. Full, clear, reliable, latest! Sent postage paid on receipt of ten cents in stamps or coin.

WAR, AN UNNECESSARY EVIL.—Forbidden by Scripture. By Augustine Jones. A brief, clear, methodical statement of the principles of peace and the facts of arbitration, by a reader of many books and a master of legal argument. Sent gratuitously on receipt of two cents for postage.

THE COMING REFORM.—The absurdities of old-fashioned militarism at home and abroad in these closing years of the nineteenth century. A woman's word. By Mary Elizabeth Blake, of Boston. It speaks well for the progress of a great reform, and for that newspaper that the Boston Journal should give conspicuous and honored place to sentiments like those here reprinted from its columns. They were written by one of its most constant and widely-read contributors, who is not unknown as an author in the higher walks of literature, and as widely esteemed as she is known. Price, singly, two cents. In quantities over ten, one cent apiece.

THE TRUE GRANDEUR OF NATIONS AND THE WAR SYSTEM OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF NATIONS.—Bound in one volume—Orations by Charles Sumner. Price, $1.00.

EPICS FOR ESSAYS AND DISCUSSIONS IN SCHOOLS, COLLEGES AND DEBATING SOCIETIES, with a list of reference books. Two hundred topics. Recently republished in London. Sent gratuitously to such as wish to use it. Also, Gettysburg, Battle Scenes, by an eyewitness. A three-paged tract. Price, two for one cent. By R. B. Howard.

THE ETHICS OF WAR.—A collection of treatises by distinguished authors. Price, 50 cents.

DYMOND ON WAR.—124 pages. Sent to any address for postage (4 cents).

THE ANGEL OF PEACE.—A monthly publication for children. Illustrated. 15 cents per year. 10 cents a year where more than five copies are taken. R. B. Howard, Editor.

MEMBERSHIP.—The payment of any sum between $2.00 and $20.00 constitutes a person a member of the American Peace Society for one year, $20.00 a life member, $50.00 a life director.

CONSTITUTION OF THE AMERICAN PEACE SOCIETY.

ARTICLE I. This Society shall be designated the "AMERICAN PEACE SOCIETY."

ART. II. This Society, being founded on the principle that all war is contrary to the spirit of the gospel, shall have for its object to illustrate the inconsistency of war with Christianity, to show its baleful influence on all the great interests of mankind, and to devise means for insuring universal and permanent peace.

ART. III. Persons of every Christian denomination desirous of promoting peace on earth, and good-will towards men, may become members of this Society.

ART. IV. Every annual subscriber of two dollars, and every donor of five dollars, shall be a member of this Society.

ART. V. The payment of twenty dollars at one time, shall constitute any person a Life-member, and fifty dollars, a Life director.

ART. VI. The chairman of each corresponding committee, the officers and delegates of every auxiliary contributing to the funds of this Society, and every minister of the gospel who preaches once a year on the subject of peace, and takes up a collection in behalf of the cause, shall be entitled to the privileges of regular members.

ART. VII. All contributors shall be entitled within the year to one-half the amount of their contributions in the publications of the Society.

ART. VIII. The officers of this Society shall be a President, Vice-Presidents, Directors, Secretaries, Treasurer, and an Executive Committee of not less than five, with power to fill their own vacancies, and transact the general business of the Society. The Board of Directors shall consist of not less than twenty, who shall have power to supply vacancies in any office of the Society, and direct all its operations till successors are chosen. The Vice Presidents shall be ex-officio Directors, and the President, Secretaries and Treasurer ex-officio members of the Executive Committee.

ART. IX. The Society shall hold an annual meeting at such time and place as the Board of Directors may appoint, to receive their own and the Treasurer's report, to choose officers, and transact such other business as may come before them.

ART. X. The object of this Society shall never be changed; but the constitution may in other respects be altered, on recommendation of the Executive Committee, or of any ten members of the Society, by a vote of three-fourths of the members present, at any regular meeting.
